Details: Rose Commercial Real Estate President, Adam Rose, represented Relievus Pain Management in its search for a new medical office space. Over the years, the company has expanded to more than 20 offices and Rose Commercial was charged with finding a larger space in the Jersey shore area. "Like in many searches, location was key," says Adam, who worked side-by-side with Relievus COO, Ron Saltiel to find the right fit. "Having worked with Relievus more than once, we had a good sense of their needs. In this case, they not only needed a bigger space but also one that would satisfy their growing demands and offer convenience for patients and staff. This Class 'A' office building with easy access to AC Expressway and Garden State Parkway provides both.
